HISTORIC HOTEL BETHLEHEM HOSTING RETRO 70s DISCO BALL

BETHLEHEM, PA – Thursday, June 8th, 2016 – Historic Hotel Bethlehem had an amazing turn out for their Roaring 1920s Ball last month that they are looking to host another Ball in August. Guests dressed up for the Roaring 20s event, they danced and dined the night away bringing back the swing atmosphere to Hotel Bethlehem.

Historic Hotel Bethlehem will be stepping back in time to the 1970s with their hotel hospitality girls serving cocktails on the mezzanine and greeting guests at the entrance of the hotel. The ballroom will be transformed into the disco era, making it enjoyable for everyone to boogie on the dance floor under a disco ball – whether it’s your first time or not – with DJ Gruvin’ Enterprises.

Enjoy listening to hits from the 70s all night long – whether it’s the “Hustle”, “If I Can’t Have You” or “You Should Be Dancing”, guests will be sure to have disco fever by the end of the night. Patti LaBelle’s, a famous former guest of the hotel, 1974 hit “Lady Marmalade” will get the crowd groovin’ after they enjoy dinner in the Grand Ballroom.

Join Historic Hotel Bethlehem on Friday August 26th, 2016 for this “far out” event. It will be a 4 course dinner including a cocktail hour with an open bar from 6pm to 11pm. The menu will feature items from the 70s such as hors d’oeuvres crabmeat rangoon, tempura shrimp, Swedish meatballs and many more choices. The main entrée will be a classic 70s dish Chicken Kiev, prepared by award winning Chef Michael Adams. Guests will enjoy the evening by dancing, socializing and celebrating in the 70s era that dates back to when the hotel started hosting the Musikfest Balls in the early 70s.

Sponsors of this event are vendors who will be donating their efforts to help Hotel Bethlehem put together an unforgettable night. DJ Gruvin' Enterprises, Alluim Floral Design, Connie's Cakes & Cookies, Elegance Remembered, Balloonworks and Omni Event.
