POPULAR WINTER WINE CLASS SERIES
RETURNS TO HISTORIC HOTEL BETHLEHEM THIS MONTH

BETHLEHEM, PA – January 12, 2015 – Winter in Bethlehem means it is time once again to warm up at a new series of educational wine classes at Historic Hotel Bethlehem. Five classes will be offered during January, February and March, each one with a different theme or highlighting wines from specific countries.

Kathleen Brown, Director of Restaurants, and Eligio Perotti, Restaurant Manager, will oversee the classes along with Terry Balent from Southern Wine & Spirits who will provide descriptions for each wine along with explanations on why he selected it for pairing.

January 21 - Wine and Spice

February 4 - Que Syrah, Shiraz

February 18 - Portugal

March 4 - India, Australia, New Zealand

March 18 - What's that smell?

Wine Spectator has honored Hotel Bethlehem's wine program for six years in a row with an Award of Excellence in the magazine's Restaurant Wine List Awards.

Classes begin at 6:30 p.m. and last between 1 and 1.5 hours. The classes are $30 each or $125 for all five. Space is limited and advance registration is required. This popular series often sells out in advance, so interested wine lovers are encouraged to contact the hotel soon. For more information or to register, please contact the Historic Hotel Bethlehem at (610) 625-2219.
